Week 1: The rule note paper

I missed the first week of class due to the add-drop period at the EEE school. Following the professor's recommendation, I completed the rule note paper activities during the week I was absent.

Week 2: Collage cut out activity

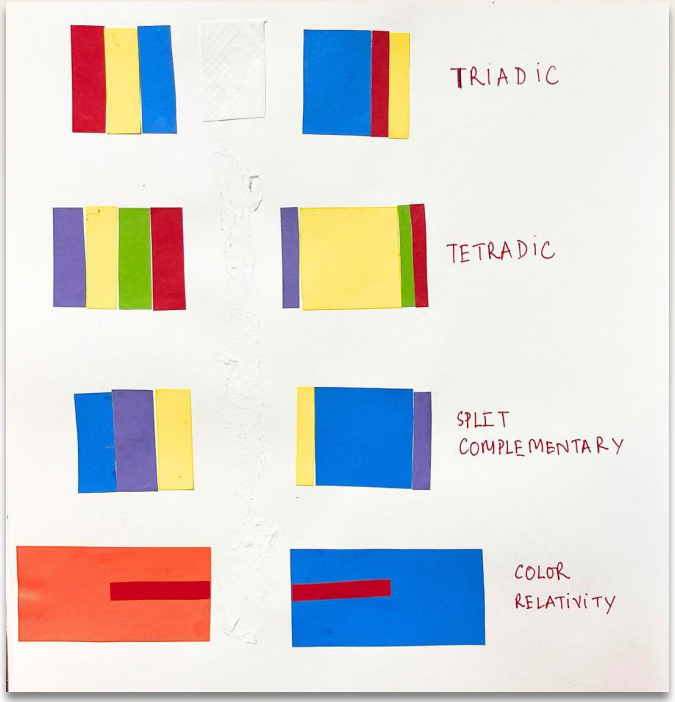

Personality: savvy shopper

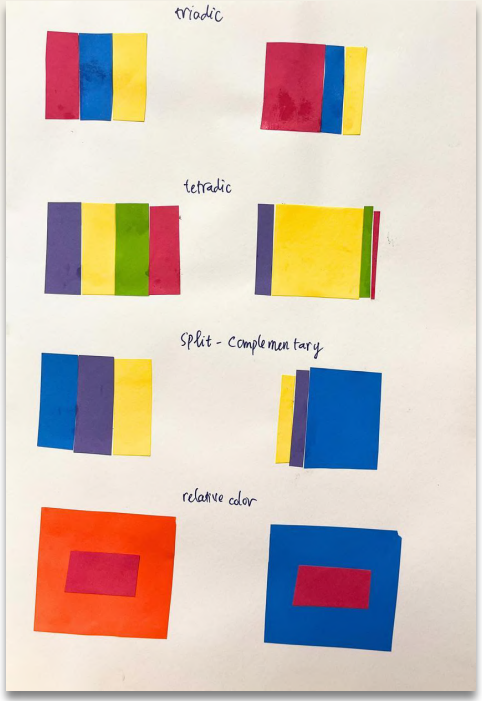

In creating this collage, I wanted to capture the lively energy of a sale, where each product vies for attention alongside its bold price tag.

I hope to emphasize the theme of savings through the repetition of red sale tags.

In addition, I aim to instill a sense of confidence in purchasing by prominently featuring a trolley filled with a variety of food items.
